March 2nd – 7:30pm
March 3rd – 2:00 & 7:30pm

Based on the hit Adam Sandler movie, The Wedding Singer's sparkling...score does for the '80s what Hairspray did for the '60s. Just say yes to the most romantic musical in twenty years.

It's 1985, and rock star wannabe, Robbie Hart, is New Jersey's favorite wedding singer. He's the life of the party until his own fiancée leaves him at the altar. Shot through the heart, Robbie makes every wedding as disastrous as his own. Enter Julia, a winsome waitress who wins his affection. As luck would have it, Julia is about to be married to a Wall Street shark, and, unless Robbie can pull off the performance of a decade, the girl of his dreams will be gone forever.

Biographies

Lana Agoncillo (Ensemble) is a freshman, and she loves to sing, dance, and act. This is Lana's second musical in the Waldorf School of Garden City, having the role of Little Red Riding Hood last year in her Eighth Grade performance of Into the Woods. In the Wedding Singer Lana has been cast as an ensemble member, playing a good amount of small roles through this musical. She has been excited to join this play and has had a great experience for her first high school musical. Lana is thrilled to be in this production, and hopes you enjoy the show as much as she does being part of it!

Hannah Behar (Linda) is a junior at the Waldorf School of Garden City. Some of her recent roles include Abuela Claudia in "In the Heights", Ronette in "Little Shop of Horrors" and Violet Beauregarde in "Willy Wonka Jr." She is thrilled to be apart of this production of "The Wedding Singer." She is very thankful to have an amazing cast and crew beside her. Enjoy the show!

Sydney Bossuk (Holly) is a junior here at the Waldorf School and is so happy to be performing in her 3rd high school musical here. Sydney discovered her love of performing in 8th grade when she was cast as Willy Wonka in Willy Wonka Jr. Since then, she has been performing in shows in and outside of school. Past credits include; Daniela (In The Heights), Clytemnestra (The Oresteia), Heather (American Idiot) and Crystal (Little Shop of Horrors). Sydney is a member of the high school a cappella group "Fermata the Blue" and is the Vice President of the Tri M Music Honors Society, chapter 7109. She has had a blast working on this show with all of her peers and would like to give a special thanks to her parents and directors as well as Rachel, Harry, Bea, Annie, Hannah, Boris and Alex for keeping her sane and grounded throughout these past months. Enjoy the show!

Drew Brodsky (Rosie) is a junior at the Waldorf School of Garden City and is extremely excited to be a part of the school's musical, The Wedding Singer as Rosie. She has performed in Newsies, Pippin, and Annie and is a part of a band called MOAB. Music is a big part of her life and she's so happy she can experience this amazing opportunity.

Sophia Conrad (Ensemble) is a freshman at Waldorf. She is extremely excited to participate in her second musical. In May of 2017 she performed in the Class of 2021's eighth grade play Into the Woods. She undertook the role of the Baker's Wife, thoroughly enjoying all aspects of the musical. As Sophia adores singing and acting, she auditioned for this year's high school musical. It has been an amazing experience for her, and she would like to wish the cast and crew good luck!

Biographies

Samantha Cumberbatch (Ensemble) is a sophomore at the Waldorf School of Garden City. She really enjoys participating in musical and this is her second one at the school. She was previously Pfanee in a public school production of "Wicked", Antonio in "Twelfth Night" by Shakespeare, The Voice of God in "J.B." and she was an ensemble member of last years musical "In The Heights". She is excited to be part of this and to share it with her friends and school community.

Simon Davis (George) is a junior at the Waldorf School who is excited to have the opportunity to share the stage with such a talented group of people. Participating in many roles in the musicals done at the school, and dedicated to perfecting his skills in music, such as singing, percussion, piano, and acoustic guitar, Simon has a great passion for music and acting, and is proud to be apart of "The Wedding Singer."

Jason Desrosiers (Ensemble, Dance Captain) is a junior at Waldorf school of Garden City who plays the role of Ensemble for the Wedding Singer. This is his third year participating in the school musical. In his free time he enjoys sketching, photography and learning choreography. He hopes that you have as much fun watching as he does preforming in the show!

Boris Epie (Sammy) is a senior at the Waldorf School of Garden City. His most recent roles include; The Little Prince in The Little Prince, and Usnavi in In The Heights. Having participated in the school's first four productions, Boris would like to thank the cast, crew, pit and Mr. Fallu for such a tremendous experience throughout the years and wishes them the best of luck in the future. He hopes to pursue music as a hobby during his time in college.

Zamiya Jean (Ensemble) is 15 years old. This is her first year at Waldorf and she has many roles in this year's musical, The Wedding Singer. She loves to sing, dance and act. She has been in many plays and productions that include: The Little Mermaid and Annie, at American Dance an dDrama, Mulan, St Black Spectrum Theatre, Schoolhouse Rock, at the BroadHollow Theatre, West Side Story, at Queens College Theatre Arts program, a Broadway-style musical production at Queensborough Community College Theatre Arts Program and Beauty and the Beast at American Dance and Drama. She has also performed in local school plays such as; 101 Dalmations, Lion King, Peter Pan, How to Eat Like a Child, etc. She also auditioned for the role of Nala in the Lion King at the Apollo Theater. She has even sung in many vocal recitals along the year.

Biographies

Ethan Krahn (Robbie) This is Ethan's 2nd time in a Waldorf School musical. Last year he was Piragua Guy in "In the Heights" and this year he's playing the role of Robbie Hart. Ethan is very excited because this is his first time getting a major leading role in a production. For the past 7 years Ethan attended The Usdan Summer Camp for the Arts. There, he was in shows such as: Into the Woods (The Baker), Once Upon a Mattress (Prince Dauntless) and this past summer, Finian's Rainbow (Og). He would like to thank his parents for supporting him through thick and thin and Mr. Fallu for giving him the privilege to embody Kevin James Christian Kritas (Ensemble) is a junior at the Waldorf School of Garden City. He has performed in several shows such as Little Shop of Horrors, In the Heights, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, and The Orestia. In his free time he enjoys playing sports, surfing, and traveling.

John Jobin McAuliffe (Ensemble) is a junior at the Waldorf School of Garden City. He plays the violin, has a small 3D printing business, and is an avid motorcyclist. His interests include engineering, information technology, philosophy, and music. He is excited to be participating in his 1st high school musical.

Beatrice Steuer (Julia Sullivan) is a senior here at the Waldorf School of Garden City. She would like to thank the casts of the productions she has been a part of here for being so fun to work with. She will miss being a part of such an enthusiastic community. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Joanna Seremetis (Ensemble), a freshman student at the Waldorf School, is thrilled to be performing in the school's fourth musical, The Wedding Singer. This is her second time participating in a musical production at the school. Her first role in a performance was the narrator of the play in Into The Woods, which her class performed in their eighth grade year. In the Wedding Singer, Joanna has been casted as an ensemble member, with several other students. With this role in the play, she portrays a number of small parts throughout the musical. Joanna is proud to be a member of the cast in this play, and has been excited for the production since day one. Working hard and dedicating time with her fellow students, Joanna has sung and danced, helping make this production as good as possible.

Harry Wozniak (Glen) is a junior in high school and is so excited to be playing Glen in Waldorf's production of The Wedding Singer! In the past he has played Tunny in American Idiot, Benny in In The Heights and various ensemble roles in Little Shop of Horrors. He is so happy to have this opportunity to be on the Waldorf stage once more and wishes his cast mates the best of luck!

Directors

Originally from New Hampshire, Andrew Fallu graduated in 2011 from Hofstra University with a Bachelor of Science in Music Education, where his primary instrument was voice. He is currently enrolled in graduate studies at Hofstra, where he will graduate with his M.A in Music Education in the spring of 2018. Mr. Fallu is an active member of The National Association for Music Education (NAfME), The American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), The Educational Theater Association (EdTA), and The Feierabend Association for Music Education (FAME). He holds both his New York State Teaching Certification in the area of Music, Grades K-12 and Certification in the Conversational Solfege music literacy method, Levels I and II.

In addition to teaching General Music in grades 1-6 and Chorus in grades 7-12, Andrew teaches a Music Theory elective in the High School. He also oversees Fermata the Blue, the School's co-ed a cappella group, and directs the annual High School musical productions. Beyond these classes, Andrew serves as the advisor to the High School chapter of the Tri-M National Music Honor Society Chapter 7109. During his summers, Mr. Fallu regularly performs in a staged musical production as well as serves as Director of the Middle School Musical as part of the Summer Performing Arts Camp in Goffstown, New Hampshire, directing and assisting with multiple staged musicals with students ages third through twelfth grade as well as college students and adults.

Brian Vollmer is a music educator, vocalist, and low brass player from Huntington, NY currently working in the Hicksville Public School District. In Hicksville he serves as the 4th and 5th grade band director at Woodland and East Street elementary school as well as the director of the award winning Hicksville High School Marching Band.

A graduate of Hofstra University (BS Ed 2011, MA 2013); Brian performed with many ensembles including the Chorale, Chamber Choir, and Hofstra Opera Theater with which he sang Masetto (Don Giovanni) in 2011. He is a voice student of Joshua Hecht and conducting student of David Fryling. Musical theater credits include Favorite Son (American Idiot), Music Director (Addams Family), Music Director (Big Fish).

Brian currently performs with the eVoco Voice Collective, a semi-professional community choir under the direction of Dr. David Fryling. He is elated to be a part of The Wedding Singer at WSGC and would like to thank Andrew Fallu for inviting him on this journey.
